New Listings

In 2015, Airbnb reached the highest number of new listings. 2016 and 2017 saw a restraint also due to a tightening in local regulations. Despite this, Airbnb became profitable in the second half of 2016, and 2017 marked the first full year of generating income. From 2018, there was a new growth stopped in 2019 by the COVID-19 pandemic.

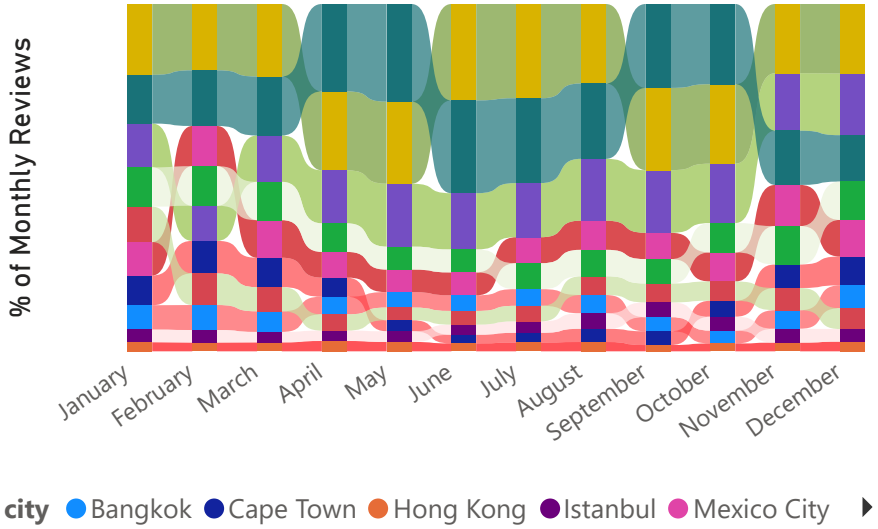
Review Frequency

Review activity rises steadily after 2015, increasing from around 0.5 million to a peak of nearly 1.7 million in 2019, showing rapid growth in platform usage and user engagement.

The sharp decline after 2020 to below 0.2 million suggests a major drop in travel activity, likely due to global disruptions, highlighting how strongly reviews depend on real world conditions.



Paris and Rome dominate review share from April to August, reflecting peak European summer travel.

New York saw an increase in November and December during the holiday season.
